

1. The WAKY-WKLO reunion at the Clifton Center in Louisville.
2. Larry Bisig, left, of Bisig Impact Group, artist Susie DeZarn, center, and Wild Turkey master distiller Jimmy Russell, pose with this year's Bourbon Ball poster, which will be held Oct. 6 at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.
3. Michael Judge, right, head of the Department of Agriculture's Office of Agriculture Marketing gives a check to Joe Kurth, director of 4-H programs for the UK Cooperative Extension Service.
4. PFC Amber Michelle Tharp of Louisville received a leadership award from the U.S. Army following basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri.
5. Announcing a partnership between Campbellsville University and Simmons College of Kentucky were, from left, William Warner of Louisville, Rev. John Chowning of Campbellsville, Simmons president Dr. Kevin Crosby and Campbellsville president Dr. Michael V. Carter.
6. The Fund for the Arts campaign celebration was held on July 18 at Actors Theatre in Louisville. The Fund exceeded its fundraising goal by raising $7.9 million.
7. Our Brooke Marshall visits with Madisonville native and Western Kentucky University graduate Charmaine Hunt, a recent contestant on The Apprentice, who spoke to the WKU Alumni July 26.
8. Two decades of WYMT sports anchors and reporters gathered in Hazard on July 6-7 to celebrate the station's 20th anniversary.
9. Dr. and Mrs. William C. Gist, right, hosted a reception for the Kentucky Society of the War of 1812. Joining them were J. David and Evelyn Sympton of Louisville and Mrs. Edmund Myles of Shelbyville.
10. Covington's Krystal Gentry, center, receives a new Ford Fusion from Rally's Drive-In Restaurants at the Kentucky Speedway in Sparta.
11. Kara Couch, editor of the Somerset Community College newspaper was honored with the 2006 Robert F. Kennedy College Journalism Award.

Kentucky Monthly welcomes Kentucky Seen photos from any group. Please send photos and captions to jackie@kentuckymonthly.com or mail them to Kentucky Seen, P.O. Box 559, Frankfort, KY 40602

